OUR LEGACY

In the spring of 1835, a group arrives following the Des Plaines River. Caleb Cadwell and his wife, Eleanor, purchase 80 acres of heavily timbered land and 80 acres of prairie for as little as $1.25 per acre. The frontier couple with five sons and two daughters settle at the corner of two trails now known as Deerfield and Waukegan Roads and called it Cadwell's Corners. Today, that corner is the city center of Deerfield, IL, featuring upscale shops and restaurants. Cadwell's Grille is located within the Embassy Suites Chicago North Shore, just 1.5 miles from the historic city center of Deerfield.
