

1. Portland Spirit Doc-Portland Spirit offices and for cruises that board at the dock at Caruthers Landing
2. Portland Art Museum-the seventh oldest museum in the United States and the oldest in the Pacific Northwest. features a center for Native American art, a center for Northwest art, a center for modern and contemporary art, permanent exhibitions of Asian art, and an outdoor public sculpture garden
3. Oregon History Museum-operated by the Oregon Historical Society, The museum contains over 85,000 artifacts relating to the history of the region in its collections
4. NW Film Center- a regional media arts resource and service organization based in the Portland Art Museum that was founded to encourage the study, appreciation, and utilization of film
5. Fox Tower Movie Theater- a 27-story office skyscraper in downtown Portland was named after the Fox Theatre that occupied the site from 1911 until the late 1990s
6. Pioneer Courthouse Square- a public space hosting more than 300 programmed events each year. With more than 26,000 people visiting the Square each day, and four transit lines surrounding the park, it is the single most visited site in Oregon's most visited city
7. Nordstrom- American upscale fashion located in the shopping district next to Pioneer Courthouse Square
8. Central Library- Opened in 1913, a three-story public library branch in downtown and serves as the main branch of the Multnomah County Library system
9. Crystal Ballroom- a historic building originally built as Cotillion Hall was built in 1914 as a ballroom, and dance revivals were held there through the Great Depression. The room can be rented for group meetings, concerts, and ballroom dance lessons each Sunday available to the public
10. Jake's Famous Crawfish- Portland's second oldest continuously operating restaurant For over 100 years has served a daily menu of the freshest fish and seafood
11. Embassy Suites Parking-located across the street from the Embassy Suites Hotel and also houses Hertz Rental Car
12. Stumptown Coffee- an independent coffee roaster and retailer Stumptown is one of several nicknames of Portland in the mid-19th century when many people used to jump from tree stump to tree stump to avoid the muddy, unpaved roads
13. Kell's Irish Pub- Kell's Brewpub is brewing award-winning beers and delicious pub food with live Irish Music 7 nights a week. Located within walking distance of the Timber matches
14. Pedal Bike Tours- guided tours that highlight Portland's history, food, and architecture, as well as bicycle rentals

- 15. Voo Doo Doughnuts- independent doughnut shop known for its unusual doughnuts, eclectic decor, and iconic pink boxes. Voodoo Doughnut offers legal wedding services, complete with doughnuts and coffee for the reception.
- 16. Skidmore Fountain- a historic fountain dedicated September 22, 1888, in memory of Stephen G. Skidmore, intended for "horses, men and dogs" to drink from. It is Portland's "oldest piece of public art".
- 17. Portland Sunday Market- an outdoor arts and crafts market. It is the largest continuously operated outdoor market in the United States.
- 18. Maritime Museum Boat- contains a collection of ship models — merchant ships and riverboats— permanent and changing exhibits, navigational instruments, and a variety of ship hardware, paintings, and photographs
- 19. The Duck Store- Portland's largest selection of Oregon Duck sportswear, gifts and memorabilia located in the White Stag Block
- 20. Oregon Leather Company- a wholesale and retail company, we offer quality products for saddle and tack, shoe findings and leather craft trades
- 21. Old Town Pizza- sits in what used to be called the Old North End the lobby of the Merchant Hotel was transformed into the hippest pizza joint in town and is haunted by a ghost named Nina
- 22. Pendleton Woolen Mills- your source for first quality Pendleton fabrics, remnants and notions for sewing and crafting. More than just a fabric store, the Woolen Mill Store sells Pendleton yarn, buttons, notions and patterns at unbelievable prices
- 23. Powell's Books- dubbed Powell's City of Books, is the largest independent new and used bookstore in the world. located in the Pearl District on the edge of downtown and occupies a full city block
- 24. Deshutes Brewery- A talented culinary team creates classic pub food taken to the next level. Matching the brewers' passion, they create dishes from scratch with the best possible local ingredients.