Like bacon? Visit the Edgewater neighborhood's Edge Fest, where the focal point is bacon. Eat, drink, admire art from local artists and listen to live music; 8/3-4

Located on the southwestern shore of Lake Michigan, The Windy City offers families a rich, multicultural and cosmopolitan environment alongside some of the best beaches in the country. Renowned for its sports fans, beautiful lakeside setting and deep-dish pizza, this city is great for family fun!

Family-Friendly Activities

SHEDD AQUARIUM – Dive into an underwater world unlike anything your family has ever experienced.

CHICAGO CHILDREN'S MUSEUM – Embark on a learning adventure where play and learning connect.

LINCOLN PARK ZOO – Check out the zoo's newest arrivals including two tiny takins, two gorillas and a Moholi bush baby.

ADLER PLANETARIUM – Learn about current NASA missions, discover the Milky Way and investigate what lies beyond in nine exhibitions and multiple theaters.

OAK STREET BEACH – Visit this kid-friendly beach area to cool off on a hot day and challenge the kids to a game of beach volleyball or Frisbee.

Tips from Samantha

Oak Street beach is the family favorite because it has amenities that the other beaches don't have like restrooms, lifeguards and a "Beachstro" for pick-me-up snacks and lunch.

Another great place to cool off is at the Crown Fountain in Millennium Park. The fountain is actually made of two large video screens on either side of a play area. The video shows faces of people of all different ethnicities, but be careful; when their mouths open out comes the water! It's a place of joy and fun as the kids and adults take off their shoes and splash around.
