Tips from Samantha

The gross-out factor always rates high with kids so while at the Audubon Insectarium skip lunch and attend one of the show times of Bug Appetite! You'll be treated to a buffet of edible bugs like "six-legged" salsa, "red beans and yikes" and chocolate "chirp" cookies.

Yes you can take your kids to a jazz club. The famous Preservation Hall has a family-friendly policy of no drinking or smoking. Shows start at 8 PM which is pretty early for jazz musicians. This is a great way to introduce your kids to an American treasure.
