Tips from Samantha

Seaport Village is a totally stroll-able 14 acres along the water with beautiful views. Parents love the unique shops and free concerts on Sundays and kids can't get enough of rides on a hand carved carousel from 1895. There's also a face painter and balloon artist to keep everyone entertained.

The GasLamp Quarter is the historic district and its compact 16 blocks makes it easy to walk around. From here you can catch a friendly trolley ride to the San Diego Zoo and Balboa Gardens.

San Diego has a beach for everyone—even dogs! For a beach experience unlike any other head to Ocean Beach Dog Beach where on the weekends 100's of dogs (and their owners) leave their leashes at home and play in the sand and surf.
