Tips from Samantha

The main "takeaway" of The City Museum is not to take yourself so seriously. With history lessons like "Corn Dogs through the Ages" and a rooftop Ferris Wheel called Big Eli even parents get to act like kids again.

At the entrance of Grant Farm are the stables of the famed and beloved Budweiser Clydesdales, home to around 25 Mares, geldings and even foals. Stand in the presence of these massive gentle giants and find out the physical requirements needed to become a Budweiser Clydesdale.
